LETTER FROM A SOUTHERN DEBTOR.—The following is a letter to the attorneys of a leading bank, in answer to a demand for the payment of an old debt, by a Texan. It will, perhaps, show some persons a new way to pay old debts:

"Texas, Feb. 15, 1868.—Gentlemen: Your kind favor of the 13th instant, informing me that you hold for collection a slight suspicion of debt in the shape of a note made by W. and B. to E. B. & Co. for $738.17, came duly to hand. Your very liberal proposition fills my bosom with the deepest feelings of gratitude, mingled with regret that I am not immediately prepared to accept it in its full benefit. Money I have none—estate, real and personal, all gone—sworn off by the cruel and relentless hand of war; but I am still young, hopeful, and in high expectation that I will be able, in a very short time, to settle fully with all my creditors, paying them to the last dime as the law directs. And in order to satisfy your mind upon the ultimate success of my plans, I will make a clean breast of them. My debts amount to about $5,000. Now I have what the law requires to settle all these claims to wit: $50 to pay the register's fees, and have availed myself of the financial and legal ability of Geo. P. Finlay, esq., to engineer the scheme. I have also been promised the assistance of Judge John C. Watrous and Col. Jesse C. Stancel, and in the course of about six months I hope to make an exhibit, which, if not entirely satisfactory to my creditors, will be a legal liquidation of all my debts. If you would conclude to sue, please do so in Judge Watrous' court at Galveston, as it will be more convenient to me. My defenses will all be on record.

"If you have any other claims due from me, you will find, by examination of my schedule on file in the United States District Court, that I have fully provided for their liquidation, making no preferences. You will appreciate my disinterestedness in pursuing this course, when I assure you that my business had become so complicated and entangled that nothing but the sword of the bankrupt law (God bless Congress for it) could cut the Gordian knot."

"I am civiliter mortuus, and when my estate is fully administered, shall prepare to shuffle off the old man (peace to his ashes) and put on the new, fresh from a resurrection as delightful and pleasing to my weary soul as the balmy breezes of spring to the poor invalid whose heart swells to bursting at the pleasant prospect of retaining convalescence.

"With high hopes of future glory, honor, wealth and happiness, under the benign influence of a country whose broad regis spreads its protecting wings over the poor debtor, I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, &c."

STOCKHOLDERS OF THE VALLEY BANK.—At a meeting of a number of Depositors in the Valley Bank, held at the office of Philip Williams, in Winchester, on the 29th of February, 1868, on motion, Aaron H. Griffith was appointed Chairman, and Wm. B. Abbott Secretary.

On motion the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That it is the interest and duty of the depositors in the Valley Bank and its branches to employ counsel to protect the rights and interest of the bank, and to assert their claim to a ratable proportion of the assets with the note-holder, in the distribution of the assets, and that in our opinion all depositors should agree to contribute to raise the necessary funds, and we are willing on our part to contribute for that purpose.

2. Resolved, That Philip Williams, Charles B. Meredith, and Aaron H. Griffith be, and they are hereby appointed a committee to correspond with other depositors, with a view to raise the necessary funds, and to employ such counsel as they may think best.

3. Resolved, That the editors newspapers be respectfully requested to publish in their respective papers the proceedings of this meeting.

Resolved, That the meeting do now adjourn.

A. H. GRIFFITH, Chairman.
Wm. B. ABBOTT, Secretary.
Information has been received in this town from Philip Williams, esq., of Winchester, who states that there will be a session of the United States Circuit Court in Richmond, on the 25th of March, at which time it is designed to bring the matters referred to in the above resolutions before the Court. We have been requested to call the attention of depositors in this section to the fact, that they may take such action as they deem proper, with regard to their interests.—Loudoun Mirror.

An Augusta farmer of 8 years experience, says that if spent tan-bark from a tan-yard, be placed around Peach trees, that are free from worms at the time they will be perfectly protected thereby for years afterwards. He recommends it to be freely applied to all fruit trees. Those having good peaches, should rid their trees of the worm, and apply one bushel or more to each tree.

A new method of propelling steamboats is announced, by which the steam power is applied directly to the paddle-wheel, without the intervention of cranks, shafts or walking beams. It is claimed that, besides a great economy in power, this method will give a great advantage in affording more space and ensuring greater safety than the machinery now in common use.

It appears that some hard-headed speculators have made fortunes by purchasing boys of their starving parents in Italy, and exporting them to London and New York.

POULTERER'S FRIEND.
A CERTAIN CURE FOR GAPES AND OTHER DISEASES IN
CHICKENS AND TURKEYS.
A Certain Preventive of Chicken Cholera. Will prevent disease in all kinds of fowl, and promote an increase of fat. Read the following:
Jefferson, Frederick co., Md.,
July 22d, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:
Gents:—The wonderful cures which have been made by your Poulterers' Friend cannot fail to interest all who raise poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the Gapes. He tried your Poulterers' Friend, according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in removing the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise poultry.
Respectfully,
A. SPENCER.

ALL BELONGING TO THE POLICY
HOLDERS OF THIS COMPANY.

To business men, and particularly to the mechanics and laboring men:
Have you provided for your families in event of your death?

It is the bounden duty of every good husband and father to make provision for his wife and children, and a LIFE POLICY is certainly the cheapest and surest means of accomplishing this end.

A man 30 years old, can at a cost of about TEN CENTS A DAY, secure to his family the sum of $2,000.

Think of this, and act promptly, for life is very uncertain.

THE MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

VIRGINIA.—At rules held in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Prince William county, on the 21 day of March, 1868, William Earnest, plaintiff, against Clara McNair and her husband, whose name is unknown, Stephen McNair, Fred. McNair, Henry McNair, Robert McNair, Dolph McNair, Francis J. Cannon, late Sheriff of Prince William county, Committee Adm'r. of John McNair, deceased, defendants: In chancery—amended bill.

The object of this suit is to attach the lands mentioned in the mortgage executed by John McNair in his life time to the plaintiff, situated in Prince William county, Va., to secure a bond of $3600, payable on the 1st of December, 1860, with interest from date, and subject said lands to the payment of said note or bond.

The defendants, Clara McNair and her husband, whose name is unknown; Stephen McNair, Fred. McNair, Henry McNair, Robert McNair, Dolph McNair, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by affidavit that they are not residents of this State, it is ordered that the said defendants appear here within one month after the publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interests in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for three successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this county. A copy, teste.
